Dear Mrs Cox

Thank you for your recent order. I can confirm that this will be despatched to you in accordance with your instructions. The supplies you have ordered were produced at our Poppy Factory, by disabled ex-Service personnel in our sheltered workshops, as a means of providing employment for men and women whose disabilities make it difficult - or even impossible - for them otherwise to follow a useful occupation.

In order to avoid the necessity to charge VAT we cannot quote a price, preferring instead to make the item(s) available to you in return for your voluntary donation. As a guide however, we can tell you that the cost of production and delivery of your order is as follows:

Item Code	Description	Quantity	Item Cost	Total Donation
FW00002	WREATH TYPE B NO BADGE	1	£17.00	£17.00

Postage Costs

£0.00

It will assist the Legion to continue its vital work and particularly our provision of employment for the disabled if your donation, at the very least, covers the production cost quoted. Whatever you feel able to give in excess of the quoted figure will go toward the Poppy Appeal which supports the Legion's general schemes for relief of distress amongst ex-Service men and women, widows and their dependents who are in need.

With our thanks, in anticipation of your kind generosity.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Maureen Simmonds

Regional Administrator
